LITERACY AWARDS

The Buckeye Authors’ Book Fair Committee, Inc. was incorporated in 1987 in Wooster, Ohio with a mission to promote professional Ohio writers, illustrators, and photographers in the book industry. The Buckeye Book Fair showcases Ohio’s influence in literature and is a fundraiser for literary outreach.

The Buckeye Book Fair promotes literacy by bringing Ohio authors to Ohio schools, libraries, and literacy programs. Over 3500 Ohio authors, illustrators, and photographers have featured for over 35 years.

From fostering and encouraging a love of reading to enhancing and updating book collections in classrooms and libraries, the Buckeye Book Fair has awarded $220,500 in books and author visits since its inception.

Teachers, librarians, and reading program directors may apply for a 2023 Buckeye Book Fair Free Book Award or Author Visit Award. Applications can be downloaded from www.BuckeyeBookFair.org.
